

Father Terry read enormously and had a special leaning to History, enjoyed reading about the early church, and it was a great loss to him when his vision became impaired.

His last Parish where he served was St. Mawes and he spent over 18 happy years getting to know not just the parishioners but the wider community alike, everyone knew Father Terry. Daily he would descend the “killer” hill a very steep incline from the Presbytery down to St. Mawes which was by no means an easy feat.

A conversationalist with a good sense of humour he was hospitable, loyal, and a compassionate man not just to his friends but his parishioners and all in St. Mawes. He was admitted to Hospital on the 02.01.22 where he died 8 days later, peacefully, on Monday 10th January.

Father Terry had a great love for the Church, and we pray the Lord will now welcome him home and grant him eternal rest.

Father Terry’s birthday was on the feast of “Our Lady of Lourdes” 11th February so we specially ask her intercession.

Our Lady of Lourdes – pray for us.
