- Sorting correspondence and drafting replies of a routine nature. Word-processing letters and routine documents.
- Producing booklets, service sheets and word-processing Prayers of the Faithful and Mass Intentions.
- Maintaining an efficient office filing system.
- Maintaining the Parish database and regularly updating it.
- Preparing and duplicating, if necessary, the weekly 'Bulletin' and maintaining a 'Diary of forthcoming Events'.
- Supporting work of Parish committees and catechetical groups and providing clerical assistance to such.
- Maintaining the Parish Diary.
- Payment of invoices.
- Maintaining and up-dating the Parish inventory

- Providing information to the Chair of the Parish Finance Committee.
- Maintain the Parish website.
- Ensuring an annual review of requirements under The Equality Act (2010) and Health and Safety Legislation (Including Fire Prevention) and preparing documents as requested by the Bishop's Office.
- Liaising with the Diocesan Safeguarding Office to ensure that DBS checks are carried out for Parishioners and workers in the Parish following recruitment/ referencing process.
- To maintain and oversee the timely and efficient supply of materials required including stationery, sacristy and household requirements.
- Co-ordinating, printing and distributing rotas for the various ministries in the church
- Keeping church notice-boards up-to-date.

These tasks may change to meet changing needs of the Parish or the Diocese.
